BANK OF THE COMMONWEALTH .- A meeting of the Stockholders of the Bark of the Com- Cummings, per Col. Kane. It is said that the monwealth, was held in Richmond, on Tuesday, when Mr. Lawrence Nunally was chosen first Director, and presented for President to the Board of Directors. He received change in the movements of troops heretofore 1016 votes, and General O. G. Clay 658 .-The question as to whether the Stockholders had the right to elect a President was raised the adoption of other measures than those September. by Judge Crump, who thought, upon a hasty examination of the charter, that the election of that officer devolved upon the Directors. The Stockholders then took the course of electing Mr. N. their first Director upanimously. The Dispatch says :- The election of Mr. Nunally, is most judicious, and in him the interests of the Bank will be confided to safe hands. His election over Gen. Clay is a very great compliment, the high standing and administrative abilities of that worthy gentleman giving him claims of very great weight. The following gentlemen were elected Directors: - A.
